

VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION

Volunteer Title: Executive Council

Purpose: Executive Council members serve as visionary leaders and oversee all Sorority operations. Accountable for the strategic direction of the entire organization, Executive Council members ensure that the organization’s operations are consistent with the mission, vision, and core values. Executive Council members are charged with having strategic conversations to position Sigma Sigma Sigma for success today and to ensure the long-term future success of the organization.

The Mission of Executive Council is to commit to the welfare and inspiration of Sigma Sigma Sigma and its Sisters by bringing our best thoughts, energies and untiring zeal to each responsibility and decisions we make as a governance body.

Time Commitment: National President and Treasurer: Up to 20 hours/week*
National Vice Presidents: Up to 10 hours/week*
**travel not included in time commitment*

Travel Needed: Weekday and weekend travel as needed.

National Convention: Required to attend.

Membership Status: Must be a Sigma Sigma Sigma alumna, in good standing.

Essential duties and activities:

1. Determine the organizations direction and vision. It is the Council's responsibility to create the mission statement and review it periodically for accuracy and validity. The Council monitors whether its policy decisions as well as the organizations programs and services reflect the mission.
2. Serve as the supreme governing body between Conventions. The Council will be responsible to make governing decisions on matters that are time sensitive and cannot wait for the Convention Delegates to vote. They will review interim constitutional needs and make revisions as necessary. They also approve National Policies of Sigma Sigma Sigma as necessary.
3. Hire the Executive Director (ED). When necessary to select a new ED, the Executive Council will institute a search process to find and hire the most qualified individual for the position. They will determine the job description, duties, expectations and responsibilities.
4. Support the Executive Director and review her performance. The Council must ensure the Executive Director has the professional support needed to further the goals of Sigma Sigma Sigma. The Council will provide regular performance assessments of the Executive Director and provide constructive feedback on strengths as well as weaknesses.
5. Ensure effective organizational planning. The Council is responsible for creating multiyear planning that looks at the mission statement, changes in external environment that affect the organization, and ways the organization can meet new opportunities and challenges. They will be responsible for reviewing monthly financial reports, annual audited financial statements and the IRS Form 990.
6. Provide sound financial management. The Council will approve the budget of the sorority. They will work to ensure that income is managed properly, that assets are guarded, and that adequate financial resources are secured to support the organization. All council members are expected to participate in financial decision making.
7. Determine, monitor, and strengthen the organization's programs and services. The Council's role is to determine which programs are the most consistent with the organization's mission, and to monitor their effectiveness.

Council members must be willing to attend Tri Sigma National Conventions, National Officer Conferences, leadership seminars and other conferences to serve as representatives of the organization. They will consider recommendations brought to Council's attention by an advisory or task force meeting, collegiate chapters, alumnae chapters, National Officers and members at large. They will be responsible for endorsing the appointment of National Officers as deemed necessary to carry out the work of the Sorority; monitor the progress of departments in moving towards goals and evaluate departmental reports in order to make decisions, offer support or respond to requested action items; and work with Tri Sigma staff and National Volunteers, as needed.

8. Enhance the organization's public standing. The organization's primary link to the community and their constituents is the Executive Council. The Council is expected to clearly articulate the mission, accomplishments, and goals to the public, as well as garnering support from important members and constituents. The Council will approve petitions or invitations to colonize on a campus. They will also serve as Installing Officers of a colony as assigned.
9. Ensure legal/ethical integrity and maintain accountability. The Council is ultimately responsible for ensuring adherence to legal standards and ethical norms. Provide personnel policies, grievance procedures, and a clear delegation to the Executive Director for hiring and managing employees. They will be responsible for enforcing the observance of all national policies and standing rules of the Sorority. The Council must establish pertinent policies and adhere to provisions of the organization's Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation.
10. Recruit and orient new Council members and assess Council performance. Executive Council members are responsible for identifying Tri Sigmas who can be groomed for future Executive Council service and assisting the Executive Director in orienting newly elected Executive Council members to ensure successful acclimation and organizational socialization. They are expected to attend Executive Council meetings as scheduled and provide semi-annual, annual, and triennial reports, as necessary.
